

FONTANA: Salon to help homeless women and children

f Share 72 in Share 0 t Tweet 0 g +1 0 Print Email Share

A Text Size ▲ ▼

TIME FOR CHANGE FOUNDATION | March 14, 2013; 10:49 AM | Comments \(0\)

Divine Hair Design, a beauty salon based in Fontana, will host a Cut-A-Thon to raise funds and support for Time for Change Foundation, a nonprofit organization in San Bernardino providing housing and support services to homeless women and children.

The event will take place from 1 to 6 p.m. on Tuesday, March 19, at 10550 Sierra Ave Suite B, in Fontana. Customers are asked to donate clothes and personal supplies. The minimum suggested donations begin at $10 for haircuts.

Matrix Hair Color will be supporting the event through monetary donations, gift baskets, and snacks.

"The Divine Hair Design Team and I are excited to be part of this project," said Laura Diaz, owner of Divine Hair Design, "Supporting Time for Change Foundation is a great way to share our joy of being hairstylists and making a difference in the world."

For information: Jessica Villegas, 909-357-8664.

Latest Headlines

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY: Sober homes to face restrictions

FONTANA: Officers shoot, kill man beating woman at Park & Ride

ONTARIO: Child's death prompts arrest of mother's boyfriend

SAN BERNARDINO: Retiring fire chief blasts council, union

Most Shared

COLUMN: Ducks' sub goalie Laurie gets his 3:56 of fame

SURVEY: Obama won every Asian American nationality

INLAND: Train runs from Riverside to Angels games

TEMECULA: Overturned semi blocks I-15 lanes

JURUPA VALLEY: Shooting suspect caught running from scene